I J. W. Gillette, Auditor of the County of Los Angeles State of California, swear, that I received the "assessment Book" of said County - showing the taxable property thereof from the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of said County, with his requisite affidavit thereunto affixed, and that I have made therein all corrections required of me by the State Board of Equalization; that I have reckoned and entered the respective sums due as taxes, and have added up and duly entered the valuations, acreage and taxes as required by law - and that such "assessment book" consists of three volumes - to wit: the one to which this affidavit is annexed, another "A" to "L" - (both marked "Country Property"), and a third volume wherein is contained property situate inside the limits of Los Angeles City - and marked "City Property." It is also to be understood that pursuant to law I have entered in said Original "Assessment Book" the delinquent and unpaid and uncancelled assessments of the fiscal year last past and copied in and added up the amount of taxes so delinquent separate and apart from those of the Current fiscal year.
